Division of Student Affairs
2018- 2019 Annual Report Summary

The fall 2018 academic term brought a philosophical change to the Division of Student Affairs, shifting from a traditional programmatic model to a co-curricular learning/educational model that includes identifying intended student learning experiences, establishing measureable learning